Estate Planning Class

Wednesday, July 30, 2025

10 a.m. – 11 a.m.

Estate Planning 101 Class - Join MAHA (Massachusetts Affordable Homeownership Alliance) for an informative Estate Planning class!

This class is designed to help HOMEOWNERS understand the importance of planning for the future. For homeowners, estate planning is essential to protect your property and assets for your loved ones. While this class is primarily for homeowners, everyone is welcome to attend and learn how to make informed decisions about their future.

This class is brought to you by the Homeownership Estate Planning Project; a partnership among the Legal Services Center of Harvard Law School, the Massachusetts Affordable Homeownership Alliance, and the Initiative on Land, Housing and Property Rights at Boston College Law School."

For more information, call the Council on Aging at 617-349-6220.

This program is open to all community members
