

MathBuck$ Pilot

What is it?

MathTalk is seeking families with children ages 4-8 to participate in testing their new app, Math!Everywhere! In this game, you'll enjoy interactive math tasks, fun augmented reality activities, and exploring your local neighborhood. You'll also earn virtual currency that you can spend within the community!

What will I be doing?

Families will be asked to use the app with their child for 1 hour a week over the course of 4 weeks.

When and how long?

The pilot will start in August and will end in September.

Compensation?

Families will gain virtual currency that can be exchanged for merchandise at local businesses!
